

THE JOLLITY OF CARNIVAL AND EXHIBITION 2022

‘Every moment of light and dark is a miracle. ‘

__Walt Whitman

Celebrations infuse life with passion and purpose. They summon the human spirit .It is truly said that a single candle can vote defy and define darkness.

With a view to usher in radiance, prosperity , mirth and merriment, Army Public School Barrackpore signaled Carnival cum Exhibition 2022 to commemorate culture , colour and creativity on 22 October 2022. The commencement of this grand event occurred with the welcoming of the Chief guest Brig. Manish Sharma, Cdr 122, inf bde, Chairman Army Public School Barrackpore. The footfalls of other dignitaries added grandeur to this celebration. Dr. Satyakam Sen, Technical Director Indian Museum, Mr Nikhilesh Biswas (Retd Indian Railway Services), Mr. Saptashi Raj Bandhan, CEO (Pearless General Organization), Lt Col Sojan Baby, BH Barrackpore, were among the other luminaries who graced the occasion. The celebration started with the auspicious ‘Diya lighting ceremony ‘ which illumed this momentous occasion. The dignitaries were greeted by the bravura of the school band .

The premise being illuminated by the enthusiasm of the Carnival comprised a spate of activities in the form of a cadence of solo and group dance and song , Collage of poems, Nukkad Natak, Magic Show, Karate stunts and Live Band Concert, food festival, layout of artefacts created by the learners in their Art and Hobby Classes, truly showcased their Artistic and Aesthetic sense. The promising young minds of Classes XI and XII put up stalls that consisted of Gaming zone, sumptuous mouth watering cuisines which exposed their culinary and entrepreneur skills. The parents and the students sojourned in the food courts and savoured their scrumptious food items.

In the same breath , the Annual Exhibition too complemented the Carnival with happiness and exuberance. The leitmotif of the Exhibition being the theme ‘Unveiling of 100 years of excavation of Mohenjodaro, a part of Indus Valley Civilization , it created a platform for re- living the past by exploring the aura of this golden age , being the first urban civilization__ its origin , rise and fall and the ongoing of social life, planning of the society, achievements of the era in education, art and architecture et all. The Exhibition also witnessed a display of the country of the Era in the mode of fashion show that earned plaudits of one and all. The delegates scrutinized the projects displayed in both microcosmic and macrocosmic parameters and complimented the efforts put up by the learners. They also inspired the learners to strive harder and appreciated their technological prowess and engineering skills. They applauded the learners for their impeccable presentation of the same. In synch with the theme of the Exhibition A TALK SHOW was also held where the dignitaries enlightened the spectators with their myriad views and savvy of knowledge on the theme.The spokesperson of the Talk show was Dr. Satyakam Sen, Technical Director Indian Museum, Mr. Saptashi Raj Bandhan, CEO (Pearless General Organization) Mr Nikhilesh Biswas (Retd Indian Railway Services) and Ms Debashree Banerjee , grand- daughter of the famous Historian Shree Rakhaldas Bandopadhyay and PGT , History , APS Barrackpore. The Diwali Carnival 2022 truly held a mirror to the learning skills of the students quintessential for the young torchbearers of the 21st century and the humble effort put up by the teaching and non- teaching staff of Army Public School Barrackpore.