ANUBHUTI - 'FIESTA OF FLAVOURS'

The culminating Annual Concert 2024 signalled by Army Public School Barrackpore on 18 Dec 2024 with the first leg being conducted on 3rd Dec 2024 paved way for higher expectations that the school community holds a mirror to. The vivacious presence of the Chief Guest, Brig Ashish Hooda, Chairman, Army Public School Barrackpore alongwith the engaging performances of the day put forth by the cherubic delights of the Foundational and the Preparatory segment reflected the oneness of the school community, so very characteristic of its ethos. Following the invocation vis-à-vis the ceremonial lighting of the lamp, the rhapsodic melody of the chorale enchanted the audience. In her address, Dr. Moitreyee Mukherjee, the Principal deftly depicted the journey of the institution from strength to strength. The conspicuous performances of the toddlers found expression in varied genres song, dance, fashion show, skit et cetera that underscored the value-added mindset of the school community in rearing the learners for a better tomorrow. Art integrated learning could not have found a better trajectory with every nuance driving home a deep-rooted thought. Brig Ashish Hooda, the Chairman and Chief Guest acknowledged the endeavour essayed by the youngsters in various domains in a prize distribution ceremony. In his address, the Chief Guest enthused the school community to chart newer realms of glory. The penultimate Vote of thanks and the patriotic fervour of the National Anthem pronounced the conclusion of a flamboyant fiesta that the insignia of the school will have on record in the days to come.
